What does trip cancellation and trip interruption mean?

If you have to suddenly and unexpectedly cancel your trip before your departure from home or interrupt your trip during your travel, you should consider trip cancellation and trip interruption insurance. Your trip cost will be 100% refunded if you cancel or interrupt your trip for any of these standard reasons:

1. You and/or your traveling companion are sick, injured or passes away before the departure or during the trip.

2. If an immediate family member is suddenly sick, injured or passes away.
3. If your traveling companion is ill, injured or passes away and you would like to continue on the trip but the tour operator/travel vendor/cruise line charges a single supplement. You will be reimbursed for the single supplement!
4. If you are injured or ill while traveling and have to extend your stay, unexpectedly, the travel insurance reimburses you for your extended meals, lodging and transportation.
5. If you are already working and asked to cancel your trip due to work reasons, you can file a claim and be reimbursed provided the vacation time had already been approved.
6. If inclement weather makes your home uninhabitable or your destination unreachable, you can also cancel and get full a refund!

Option Two: Trip Cancellation and Full Trip Interruption benefits are available at these prices!

If the trip cost is between $1001 and $1500 per person, the premium is $112 per person.
